C. Placement of flags over footpaths or nature strips.

(Austroads Guide to Road Design Part 6a Paths for Walking and Cycling).

No Flags or any advertising signs or any other objects are to be placed under the 2.5 clearance zone over the footpath or nature strip.

_Pedestrian path vertical clearance_

An adequate vertical clearance should be provided over the full width of the pedestrian path, completely free of overhanging projections and obstructions (Figure 6.9). Clause D2.3.5 of AS 1742.2:2009 requires that the vertical clearance to a sign that overhangs a footway or bicycle path is no less than 2.5 m.

For urban areas AS 1742.2:2009 (Clause D2.3.5) requires a minimum vertical clearance to a sign of 2.0 m above the top of the kerb to prevent obstruction to an occasional pedestrian. It is considered that this should be interpreted to mean a sign that is located outside of the limits of the path and recommended clearances. It should be noted that AS 1428.2:1992 also requires a minimum vertical clearance of 2.0 m to fixtures and fittings to buildings (e.g. lights, awnings, opening windows) and that this is a minimum provision. Some municipalities require trees overhanging pedestrian paths to be trimmed to a clearance of 3.0 m.

All locations that have high pedestrian flows, the footpath width should provide for the appropriate level of service.

Note: The vertical clearance to an obstruction (e.g. sign), shown at 2500 mm, is required by AS 1742.2:2009.
